

Combining Artistry and Elegance with Flour and Eggs...

Based in Beverley, East Yorkshire, Annie Elizabeth Cake Design specialises in beautiful, bespoke Wedding cakes and high end, luxury celebration cakes.

My style incorporates classy, contemporary, designs with a touch of elegance and a whole lot of love. Sugar flowers are a particular speciality adding a romantic, sophisticated finish and creating a truly show stopping centrepiece for any reception.

I have extremely high standards and a very fine eye for detail which is reflected in all of my work. I strongly believe that every cake should be of the highest quality in both finish and taste, using only the highest quality ingredients and hours of dedication down to every last detail.

I value each and every one of my clients and I am dedicated to providing a professional, personal service.

I look forward to hopefully meeting you and together, designing the cake of your dreams.

The Design Consultation

Around 4-6 months prior to your wedding date, it's time to get the creative juices flowing.

The design consultation is where we will meet (either in person at Annie's home studio or via Zoom) to discuss all of the finer details and design elements of your cake together over a cup of tea (or coffee...) This is your chance to share mood boards, colour schemes, fabric swatches or simply just chat about your visions and ideas. From this, we will work together to draft up and design your fully bespoke, dream cake.

Around 7 days after your consultation, we will be in touch with your final sketch.

We couldn't have asked for any better. From start to finish Annie was amazing to work with. So professional and accommodating working together to create a bespoke cake. She sorted everything so we had one less thing to worry about “What an amazing and talented lady!

Annie was so professional throughout. We had thorough consultations so we knew exactly the cake she would be creating. She made us feel extremely confident that she was going to make a spectacular cake, giving us no doubt it would be perfect and like our other suppliers, helped the day run smoothly.

More importantly the cake tasted absolutely delicious and would 100% recommend to everyone!
